

TRAINING

UNDERSTANDING

CIRCULAR HEALTHCARE

AND HOW TO IMPLEMENT IT

Tuesday 28 November 2023, Brussels | 09:00 - 17:30 CET

REGISTER HERE

AGENDA

Morning

Circular
Healthcare fundamentals

Circular Healthcare definition
Plastic: environmental and health impact
Plastic in healthcare
HCWH Europe

Harmful chemicals in plastics and a toxic-free circular economy
Dorota Napierska, Toxic-free Circular Economy Policy Officer - Zero Waste Europe

Why we need a PVC phase out
Anders Bolmstedt, Chemist PhD Occupational Health - Region Vastra Gotaland

Debunking myths: recycling, bio-based, compostable, and biodegradable alternatives, paper packaging, etc.
HCWH Europe

LUNCH BREAK

Flotilla
FOUNDATION

Co-funded by the EU and the Flotilla Foundation. HCWH Europe is solely responsible for this content and related materials. The views expressed do not necessarily reflect the official views of the EU, CINEA, or the Flotilla Foundation who cannot be held responsible for them.

AGENDA

Afternoon

Plastic reduction strategies

Choosing wisely Italy: doing more does not mean doing better

Francesco Bortoluzzi, Gastroenterologist - AIGO (Italian Association of Hospital Gastroenterologists and Digestive Endoscopists)

Gloves off: reducing the unnecessary use of gloves in healthcare

Nicola Wilson, Lead Practice Educator - Great Ormond St. Hospital, UK

Reducing unnecessary waste in colorectal cancer screening

Annet van Abeelen, Program Coordinator - National Institute for Public Health and the Environment

Reprocessing of single-use medical devices

Andrea Brinker, Senior Physician, Internal Medicine, Nürnberg Süd Klinikum

Reusable textiles in healthcare

Reusable food contact materials in healthcare

Amy Johnston, Assistant Waste Manager - Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals

Sustainable procurement for Circular Healthcare

Anders Bolmstedt, Chemist PhD Occupational Health - Region Vastra Gotaland

REGISTER HERE

Flotilla
FOUNDATION

Co-funded by the EU and the Flotilla Foundation. HCWH Europe is solely responsible for this content and related materials. The views expressed do not necessarily reflect the official views of the EU, CINEA, or the Flotilla Foundation who cannot be held responsible for them.